A inspiration to the world

😊 Childhood 😊

*Born on February 4, 1913 in Tuskegee Alabama.

*Rosa's mother was a teacher and her father was a carpenter and a builder, he was also very skilled in stonary and with bricks. Her father would leave for long periods at a time, for that reason her mother and father split up. She went to live in Abbeville when she was vary young. When she was a toddler she went to live in Pine Level with her grandparents. She would play with the other kids around the house but her grand father would not let her play with the white children.

Rosa Parks

Accomplishments

- Rosa Parks helped Martin Luther King Jr. stop slavery and helped other people stand up for their rights as American citizens.

Hardships

- Mrs. Parks is promptly arrested for violating segregation laws. The bus driver told all the African American people that were sitting in the middle of the bus to sit in the back of the bus (where there was no room whatsoever). In August 1994, Parks was attacked in her home by a young man who wanted money from her. Of the event, she writes, "I pray for this young man and the conditions in our country that have made him this way. Despite the violence and crime in our society, we should not let fear overwhelm us. We must remain strong."

Rosa Parks

- Rosa Parks died on October 24 2005. Died Monday at the age of 92. Historians mark the date of her quiet-but-revolutionary act as the start of the modern civil rights movement in the United States.
